

8. Fall School Health and Social Planning Worksheets

This section contains information from the Yukon First Nations Community Health Planning Fall School held in October 2008.

There is one key document from this conference in this section.

This document is a worksheet that takes one through all the steps involved in health and social planning.

These worksheets can be shared with staff in other departments, volunteers or community members.

The document can be sent electronically in an email or photocopied and distributed as you see fit.

Please refer to the manual that was distributed at this conference for additional material about all the steps involved in health and social planning using this approach.

Contact the Council of Yukon First Nations Health and Social Development Department if you would like a copy of this manual (867) 393-9240.
