

Introduction:

The Yukon First Nations (YFN) Parent Satisfaction Survey is part of a Pilot project under the Council of Yukon First Nations (CYFN) Education Department, with oversight from the First Nations Education Commission (FNEC) for the Yukon. Conducted by the YFN Educational Achievement Coordinator, the data/ information obtained from the survey will be published as a part of the “How are we doing report (HAWD) 2013-2014”. The HAWD report will provide insight into how we can improve the learning experiences of our students.

Purpose and Goals of Survey:

The YFN Parent Satisfaction Survey seeks to identify the parents’, guardians’, and community members’ level of satisfaction with the children’s/youths’ education from an YFN perspective. The data/ information obtained from this survey along with other data/information published in the “How are we doing report” may be used to assist local First Nation governments in the directing of education policies and programs for their community.

Confidentiality/Privacy Declaration:

CYFN will not collect your name or any other contact information in regards to the YFN Parent Satisfaction Survey. In conjunction with anonymity, at no time will any specific answers in the survey be attributed to any participant.

All data/ information obtained from the YFN Parent Satisfaction Survey will be collected by the YFN Educational Achievement Coordinator and retained at CYFN.

Any publications containing data/information obtained from the YFN Parent Satisfaction Survey will be processed through CYFN and FNEC for approval. For publication and distribution of data/information obtained from this survey regarding specific First Nations communities, approval for publication and distribution will be processed through the respective community leaders.

All First Nation governments and FNEC will receive presentations and copies of any publications produced through CYFN containing this Parent Satisfaction Survey.
