

Health & Social Statistical Analyst

Job Summary:

Reporting to the Senior Health and Social Analyst the Statistical Analyst will provide statistical and data support for various projects within CYFN, such as the First Nations Regional Labour and Economic Development Survey

Screening Criteria: A post-secondary degree in biostatistics, statistics, mathematics, information management, public health or relevant field or equivalency obtained through coursework and/or work experience.

Salary: $68,117.42 to $85,148.06 per annum

Hours: Term full-time to March 31, 2019 with possibility of extension

A secondment may also be considered to fill this position